Who Created Me? And Why?

Who Created Me? And Why?

Everything indicates the existence of the Creator

- Who is the Creator of the heavens, the earth, and the magnificent beings within them—entities that cannot be fully contained or comprehended?
- Who designed this complex, fine-tuned system that exists in the Earth and the Heavens?
- Who created humans, endowed them with senses like hearing, sight, and cognition, and enabled them to learn and recognize reality?
- How do you explain this exact function that the organ systems in your body and the bodies of other living beings perform? And by whom were they made?
- How is this vast world structured and maintained by its perfectly calibrated laws that have existed since the beginning of time?
- Who established the mechanisms that control life and death, the procreation of creatures, day and night, the varying seasons, etc. in this world?
- Was the universe self-creating? Or was it made out of nothing at all? Or did it just happen to exist by chance?
- Why do humans believe in the existence of things that they cannot see, such as perception, mind, spirit, feelings and love? Isn't it because they observe their effects? How can humans deny the existence of a Creator of this huge universe while they witness the evidence of His existence through His creations, His work and His mercy?!
- No one will accept the story that a house existed without human construction! or that a mansion just appeared out of nothing! How are those who assert that there is no Creator for this vast cosmos to be believed by certain people? A reasonable person would find it hard to accept the idea that this perfectly balanced cosmos simply happened.
- Allah, the Almighty says: ﴿Were they created by none, or were they the creators [of themselves]?﴾ The Holy Qur'an: 52: 35.

Allah (God), the Most High

There is only one Lord and one Creator, with a multitude of exquisite Names and Attributes that point to His Perfection. The Creator, the All-Merciful, the Provider, and the Most Generous are a few of His Names. Then we have «Allah,» the Lord Almighty's most well-known moniker, which signifies the One who is alone deserving of devotion and who has no companion.

Allah, the Almighty, says in the Holy Qur'an: ﴿Say: "He is Allah, the One, *Allah, the Eternal Refuge. *He neither begets nor He begotten, *and there is none comparable to Him.﴾ The Holy Qur'an: 112: 1-4.

Allah, the Almighty, says: ﴿Allah: none has the right to be worshiped except Him, the Ever-Living, All-Sustaining. Neither drowsiness overtakes Him nor sleep. To Him belongs all that is in the heavens and all that is on earth. Who is there that can intercede with Him except with His permission? He knows what was before them and what will be after them, while they encompass nothing of His knowledge, except what He wills. His Kursī [i.e., footstool] extends over the heavens and earth, and safeguarding of both does not weary Him, for He is the Most High, the Most Great.﴾ The Holy Qur'an: 2: 255.

Attributes of Allah, the Most High

The Earth was built by the Lord, who also gave it shape and made it hospitable for His creatures. He is the One who created the heavens and all the fantastic animals living there. He made the perfectly regulated sun, moon, day and night symbols of His majesty and might.

It is God who has provided us with the air we breathe to stay alive. It is Him who sends down rain from the sky and has subjected the seas and rivers for us. It is God who fed us in the wombs of our mothers while we were helpless. It is He who makes our blood flow in our veins and our hearts beat continuously from birth to death.

Allah, the Almighty, says: ﴿Allah brought you out from your mothers' wombs not knowing anything, and He gave you hearing, sight and intellect, so that you may be grateful.﴾ The Holy Qur'an: 16: 78.

The worshipped Lord should possess qualities of absolute Perfection

Our Creator has gifted us with intellects that enable us to acknowledge His greatness. Additionally, He has ingrained in us an inherent disposition to discern His perfection and recognize that imperfection is incompatible with His essence.

The acts of worship are reserved solely for Allah, as He is the flawless and deserving One of worship. Anything worshipped besides Him is inherently false, imperfect, and destined for eventual decay and oblivion.

A deity worthy of worship cannot be a human, an idol, a tree, or an animal! It goes against rationality to worship anyone other than the Perfect God. How can one worship a being that is inherently inferior to God?

In essence, a rational individual would find it inconceivable to worship anything less than the Perfect God.

The Almighty cannot be conceived as a fetus in a woman's womb or be born as an infant! The Supreme Being is the Creator of all creatures, holding them within His grasp and under His dominion. None has the capacity to harm, crucify, torment, or demean Him! The Divine cannot experience death!

The Almighty is the One who never forgets, sleeps, or eats. His superiority is such that it is not fitting for His Majesty to have a spouse or offspring. The Creator is adorned with attributes of greatness and can never be associated with needs or imperfections. Furthermore, any texts contradicting the magnificence of the Creator and ascribed to the Prophets are deemed corrupted, not originating from the authentic revelation sent to Moses, Jesus, and other Prophets—peace and blessings be upon them all.

Allah, the Almighty, says: ﴿O people, a similitude is set forth, so listen to it: those whom you invoke besides Allah can never create even a fly, even if they all come together for that. And if a fly snatches something away from them, they cannot retrieve it. How feeble is the invoker as well as the invoked! *They have not revered Allah the reverence He deserves. Indeed, Allah is All-Powerful, All-Mighty.﴾ The Holy Qur'an: 22: 73-74.

Is it possible to imagine the Creator abandoning humanity without Divine guidance?

Can it be imagined that Allah brought forth all these creatures without a purpose? Would He create them without reason, despite being the All-Knowing and the All-Wise?

Is it conceivable that the One who meticulously and perfectly crafted mankind, orchestrating all within the Heavens and Earth for their benefit, would create them without a purpose? Would He leave them without answers to the most profound questions that concern them, such as: Why are we here? What comes after death? What is the purpose of our creation?

Contrary to such notions, Allah has sent His Messengers to enlighten us about the purpose of our existence and what He has decreed for us to do!

Allah dispatched the Messengers to instruct us that He alone deserves worship, to guide us in the ways of worshiping Him, to convey His commandments and prohibitions, and to impart virtuous values that promise a better and blessed life if followed.

Numerous Messengers, including Noah, Abraham, Moses, and Jesus, were sent by Allah. He supported them with signs and miracles as evidence of their sincerity and confirmation of their divine mission.

Prophet Muhammad, peace and blessings be upon him, held the final position among the Messengers and Prophets, with Allah revealing the Holy Qur'an to him.

The Messengers unequivocally conveyed the message that this life is a test, and the true life will unfold after death. They instructed that there is a Paradise awaiting those who worship Allah alone without associating partners with Him, and believe in all the Messengers and Prophets, while Fire is prepared by Allah for those who worship other gods besides Him or disbelieve in any of Allah's Messengers.

Allah, the Almighty says: “O children of Adam, when there come to you messengers from among you, reciting My verses to you – then whoever fears Allah and mends his ways, they will have no fear, nor will they grieve. *But those who reject Our verses and show arrogance towards them, they are the people of the Fire, they will abide therein forever.”

The Holy Qur'an: 7: 35-36.

Allah, the Most High, says: ﴿Did you think that We created you with no purpose and that you would not be brought back to Us??﴾ (The Holy Qur'an: 23: 115)

The Holy Qur'an

The Almighty Allah's message to Muhammad, the Seal of the Prophets and Messengers, is contained in the Holy Qur'an. It is regarded as the most significant miracle that demonstrates the veracity of Muhammad's Prophethood. The laws and stories found in the Qur'an are true. Due to its distinct style and elegance, Allah challenged the doubters to produce a surah (or chapter) comparable to this Qur'an, but they were unable to do so. Numerous scientific facts and logical arguments from the Holy Qur'an demonstrate that it cannot have been made by humans. It is the revealed message of the Almighty, the Lord of mankind.

Why are there multiple Messengers?

Since the dawn of time, Allah has dispatched Messengers and Prophets to guide humanity towards monotheism, urging them to worship their Lord and conveying His commandments and prohibitions. The central theme of all Messengers and Prophets' messages has been the call to worship Allah, the Almighty, exclusively. When a community deviates or rejects the monotheistic message brought by their Messenger, Allah sends another Messenger to rectify their course and lead them back to the pure belief in worshipping and obeying Allah alone. This pattern persisted until the sending of the final Messenger, Prophet Muhammad, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him. He brought forth the eternal and universal religion for all of humanity, destined to endure until the Day of Resurrection. This religion complements and supersedes preceding laws, with the Almighty decreeing that this message shall remain preserved until the end of time. Therefore, Muslims believe, as Allah commanded, in all the previous Messengers and Scriptures.

Allah, the Almighty says: ﴿The Messenger believes in what has been sent down to him from his Lord, as do the believers. All of them believe in Allah, His angels, His Books, and His messengers, [saying], "We make no distinction between any of His messengers." And they say, "We hear and obey. Grant us Your forgiveness, our Lord, and to You is the [final] destination.﴾ (The Holy Qur'an 2: 285)

No one attains belief until they acknowledge all the Messengers

Allah is the sender of the Messengers, and rejecting even one of them is tantamount to rejecting them all. The gravest sin is disbelief in Allah and the denial of His revelations. Thus, admission to Paradise necessitates faith in every Messenger.

At the same time, it is imperative for everyone to embrace faith in all the Messengers appointed by Allah. This faith remains incomplete without acknowledging and adhering to the teachings of the last Messenger, Prophet Muhammad, may peace and blessings be upon him.

Allah states in His Holy Book that rejecting any of His Messengers is tantamount to rejecting both Allah and His revelation.

Read, if you may, the following Verse: Those who disbelieve in Allah and His messengers, and wish to make a distinction between Allah and His messengers, and they say, “We believe in some and disbelieve in others,” wishing to adopt a way in between. * It is they who are the true disbelievers, and We have prepared for the disbelievers a humiliating punishment. The Holy Qur’an: 4: 150-151.

What is Islam?

Islam is the act of surrendering to the Almighty Allah through the principles of monotheism, obedience, and acceptance of His laws. The Messengers were sent with a unified message: to worship Allah alone without associating any partners with Him.

While Islam is the common religion of all Prophets, each conveyed the same message with distinct laws. Presently, Muslims are the sole adherents to the genuine religion revealed to all prophets. The current message of Islam is considered the truth, as the same Lord who sent Abraham, Moses, and Jesus is also the One who sent Prophet Muhammad, the Seal of the Messengers, and the laws of Islam supersede preceding ones.

Contrary to Islam, contemporary religions are either human-made or divine religions corrupted by human influence. They have evolved into a blend of superstitious beliefs, inherited myths, and human interpretations.

The Muslim Creed stands as the only uncorrupted belief system, and the Holy Qur'an has a singular version across all Muslim countries. Allah, the Almighty says in his Holy Book: ﴿Say, “We believe in Allah and what has been sent down to us and what was sent down to Abraham, Ishmael, Isaac, Jacob, and his descendants, and what was given to Moses, Jesus, and other prophets from their Lord; we make no distinction between any of them, and to Him we submit. *Anyone who seeks a religion other than Islam, never will it be accepted from him; and in the Hereafter he will be among the losers.﴾ The Holy Qur'an: 3: 84-85.

How Muslims perceive Jesus, peace be upon him

Muslims hold a deep reverence for the Prophet Jesus, peace be upon him, as they are mandated to believe in him, express love and respect, and acknowledge his message promoting monotheism and the worship of Allah without associating any partners with Him.

In the Muslim perspective, both Jesus and Muhammad (may Allah's peace and blessings be upon them) are esteemed as prophets sent to guide humanity towards the path of Allah and the route leading to Paradise.

Muslims recognize Jesus, peace be upon him, as one of the most powerful Messengers of Allah, the Almighty, emphasizing his miraculous birth. The Holy Qur'an affirms that Allah created Jesus without a father, paralleling the creation of Adam without either a father or mother, underscoring Allah's omnipotence over all things.

It is crucial to note that Muslims firmly believe Jesus is neither a god nor the son of God, and they reject the notion of his crucifixion. According to Islamic belief, Allah elevated Jesus to Himself, and he will return to Earth at the world's end as a just judge. Furthermore, Muslims anticipate that Jesus will stand alongside them, recognizing them as true adherents of monotheism—the fundamental message of Jesus and all the prophets.

Allah mentioned in His Holy Qur'an that the message of Jesus was corrupted by the Christians, and there were astray extremists who corrupted and changed the Bible; by adding texts that were not spoken by Jesus. This is confirmed by the existence of multiple versions of the Bible and the presence of numerous contradictions within them.

According to Allah’s revelation, Jesus dedicated himself to worshipping his Lord and never advocated for anyone to worship him. His mission was to guide people to worship their Creator, yet Christians were led astray by Satan to worship Jesus. The Holy Qur’an explicitly declares that Allah will not forgive those who worship entities other than Him. On the Day of Resurrection, Jesus will disavow those who worshipped him, clarifying that he only urged them to worship the Creator and never endorsed being worshipped in his place.

Proving these facts, Allah’s, the Almighty, says: ﴿O People of the Book, do not go to extremes in your religion, and do not say about Allah but the truth. The Messiah, Jesus, son of Mary, was only a messenger of Allah, and His Word that He bestowed upon Mary, and a spirit from Him. So believe in Allah and His messengers and do not say “Three” [i.e., Trinity]. Cease; that is better for you. Indeed, Allah is the only One God. Glory be to Him, [far exalted is He] to have a son. To Him belongs all that is in the heavens and all that is on earth, and sufficient is Allah as a Disposer of Affairs﴾

The Holy Qur’an: 4: 171.

He also says: ﴿When Allah will say, “O Jesus, son of Mary, did you tell people, ‘Take me and my mother as gods besides Allah?’ He will say, ‘Glory be to You! It is not for me to say what I have no right. Had I said so, You would have surely known it. You know what is within myself, whereas I do not know what is within Yourself. Indeed, You are the All-Knower of all unseen.﴾ The Holy Qur’an: 5: 116.

To attain salvation in the afterlife, one must adopt Islam and adhere to the teachings of Prophet Muhammad (Peace be upon him)

The Prophets and Messengers (Peace be upon them) unanimously affirmed that only those who embrace Islam, believe in Allah without associating partners with Him, and acknowledge all His Prophets and Messengers will find salvation in the Hereafter. Consequently, individuals who followed the teachings of Moses during his era were considered Muslims and devout believers. However, with the advent of Jesus, it became incumbent upon Moses’s followers to follow him. Those who believed in Jesus were regarded as righteous Muslims, while those who rejected his Message and clung exclusively to Moses’s religion were deemed disbelievers for rejecting a messenger sent by Allah. Now, with the sending of Muhammad, it is obligatory for every individual to believe in him. Allah is the sender of Moses, Jesus, and the last Messenger, Muhammad (Peace be upon him). Therefore, those who reject Prophet Muhammad's Message and adhere to the doctrines of Moses or Jesus are considered disbelievers.

Merely claiming to respect Muslims or giving charity is insufficient for salvation. True salvation requires belief in Allah, His Scriptures, Messengers, and the Last Day, for deeds to be accepted by Allah. The gravest sins include polytheism, disbelief in Allah, rejection of the revealed Scriptures, and denial of the Prophethood of the final Messenger, Muhammad (Peace be upon him).

Jews and Christians, who have been informed about the mission of Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) but choose not to believe in him and reject Islam, will face eternal residence in Hell, as promised by Allah: ﴿Those who disbelieve from the People of the Book and the polytheists will be in the fire of Hell, abiding therein forever. It is they who are the worst of creatures﴾ The Holy Qur'an: 98: 6.

Given that the final message has been revealed by Allah to humanity, those who are aware of Islam and have knowledge of the last and final Messenger, Muhammad (Peace be upon him), are obligated to embrace belief in him, follow his religion, and adhere to his teachings. Consequently, those who comprehend this ultimate message but reject it will find their deeds unacceptable to Allah, and they will face punishment in the Hereafter.

The evidence for that is Allah's saying: ﴿Anyone who seeks a religion other than Islam, never will it be accepted from him; and in the Hereafter he will be among the losers﴾ (The Holy Qur'an: 3: 85)

Allah also says: ﴿Say, "O people of the Book, come to a common term between us and you, that we worship none but Allah and associate no partners with Him, and that we do not take one another as lords besides Allah." But if they turn away, say, "Bear witness that we are Muslims [submitting to Allah].﴾ The Holy Qur'an: 3: 64.

What does it take to be a Muslim?

To embrace Islam, one should adhere to the six pillars of faith, which entail:

1. Believing in Allah, the Almighty, as the Creator, Ever-Sustaining, and the sole Planner, possessing attributes beyond any human comparison. Allah, having no spouse or children, is the only entity deserving of worship.

2. Acknowledging the existence of Angels as devout worshippers of Allah, created from light, with one of their responsibilities being the communication of divine revelations to the Prophets.
3. Embracing faith in all Scriptures revealed by Allah to His Prophets, including the Torah, the Gospel, and the ultimate message to humanity, the Holy Qur'an.
4. Believing in all Prophets, such as Noah, Abraham, Moses, Jesus, and the final Prophet, Muhammad (Peace be upon him). These individuals, as human beings, were supported by divine revelation, signs, and miracles to attest to their authenticity.
5. Embracing the conviction in the Day of Judgment, a time when all individuals will be resurrected and judged by Allah. Believers will enter Paradise, while disbelievers will enter Hellfire.
6. Having faith in the Divine Decree, understanding that Allah possesses knowledge of all past and future events. Believers recognize that Allah, as the Creator of everything, has ordained and willed each occurrence.

Islam is the sure path to happiness

Islam is not confined to any specific group; it is the religion of all Prophets and is meant for everyone, transcending cultural or ethnic boundaries.

It assures genuine happiness in this worldly life and eternal bliss in the Hereafter, addressing the needs of both the body and soul. Islam stands as the comprehensive solution to all human problems.

As Allah, Almighty, states in the Holy Qur'an:

“Allah said, ﴿Get down, both of you, from here altogether [with Satan] as enemies to one another. Then when there comes to you guidance from Me, whoever follows My guidance will neither go astray nor fall into misery . * But whoever turns away from My Reminder[47] will have a miserable life, and on the Day of Resurrection We will raise him blind﴾ The Holy Qur'an: 20: 123-124.

What advantages do I gain from accepting Islam?

Certainly, embracing Islam yields immensely valuable benefits, including:

1. Success and honor in the worldly life: By becoming servants of Allah, Almighty, rather than slaves to Satan and desires, individuals achieve success and honor in their worldly lives.

2. Greatest success in the Hereafter: Embracing Islam leads to the ultimate success in the Hereafter, involving protection from Allah's punishment, entry into Paradise, and the attainment of Allah's pleasure for eternal abidance.

3. Eternal bliss in Paradise: Those admitted to Paradise experience perpetual joy, devoid of death, illness, pain, grief, or aging, and they receive whatever they desire.

Allah has prepared unimaginable pleasures in Paradise: ﴿Whoever does righteous deeds, male or female, while being a believer, We will surely grant him a good life[61], and We will surely reward them according to the best of their deeds﴾ The Holy Qur'an: 16: 97.

What potential consequences might I face by choosing not to embrace Islam?

Those who refuse to embrace Islam would forfeit the opportunity to acquire the greatest knowledge available, which is understanding Allah and gaining insights about Him. Additionally, they would lose faith in Allah, the source of security, tranquility, and peace of mind in this life, as well as the promise of eternal bliss in the Hereafter.

Furthermore, they would miss out on the profound teachings contained in the most revered book that Allah has sent for humanity, and they would be denied the belief in this Honorable Book. The rejection of Islam would also lead to the denial of faith in the esteemed Prophets of Allah and the prospect of companionship with them in Paradise on the Day of Judgment. Instead, they would find themselves in the company of devils, aggressors, and wicked individuals in Hellfire—an unfortunate dwelling and companionship.

In emphasizing these consequences, Allah, Glorified and Sublime be He, states: ﴿So worship whatever you wish besides Him.﴾ Say, "Indeed, the losers are those who will lose themselves and their families on the Day of Resurrection. That is indeed the clear loss. * They will have layers of fire above them and below them. That is how Allah threatens His slaves. Then fear Me, O My slaves﴾ The Holy Qur'an: 39: 15-16.

Do not postpone your choice!

Life is not a permanent dwelling; its fleeting nature will eventually fade away, and every sincere aspiration will extinguish with the passage of time. A day will come when you will be held accountable for all your actions in this world. Allah, the Almighty, conveys: «And the record [of deeds] will be placed before them, and you will see the wicked scared of what it contains. They will say, “Woe to us! What is this book that leaves nothing, small or big, except that it has recorded it?” They will find all what they did before them, and your Lord does not wrong anyone» The Holy Qur’an: 18: 49)

The Quran unequivocally states that those who do not embrace Islam are destined for Hellfire, where they will reside eternally. The gravity of this loss is immense, as emphasized by Allah: «Anyone who seeks a religion other than Islam, never will it be accepted from him; and in the Hereafter he will be among the losers» The Holy Qur’an: 3: 85.

Islam is the only accepted religion in the sight of Allah; He does not recognize any other.

This world serves as a test for us, and it is crucial to recognize its transient nature. Be certain that «This life is as short as a dream, and no one knows when he will die!» When facing your Creator on the Day of Resurrection, how will you respond if questioned about not following the truth or failing to believe in the Seal of the Prophets?

Allah warns of the consequences of disbelief in Islam, stating: «But those who disbelieve and reject Our signs, they are the people of the Fire; they will abide therein forever» The Holy Qur’an: 2: 39. The eternal fire of Hell awaits thosewhorejectthetruth.

There is no justification for those who forsake the truth and adhere blindly to the ways of their forefathers

Allah, the Almighty, has conveyed that many individuals refrain from embracing Islam due to the apprehension of societal pressures. Additionally, some reject Islam out of an unwillingness to alter the beliefs inherited from their forefathers, ingrained by tradition, and many are hindered by an unwavering allegiance to falsehoods deeply rooted in them. These individuals, however, will find no justification and will stand before Allah on the Day of Judgment without valid reasons.

It is not a valid excuse for atheists to claim, «I will remain an atheist because I was born into an atheist family.» Instead, they should employ the intellectual capacity bestowed upon them by Allah to contemplate the magnificence of the heavens and the earth, recognizing the presence of a creator for this vast universe. Similarly, those who worship statues and idols should question their allegiance and ask themselves why they worship an inanimate object devoid of hearing, sight, or any beneficial attributes.

Likewise, Christians who adhere to beliefs that defy common sense and reason should introspect. How can the Lord punish His son, who committed no sins, for the transgressions of others? Why would humans crucify and kill the son of their Lord? Does their Lord lack the power to forgive sins without necessitating the sacrifice of His son? It is incumbent upon a rational individual to follow the path of truth, free from blindly adhering to the falsehoods inherited from forefathers.

Allah, the Almighty, addresses this in the Quran: «When it is said to them, “Come to what Allah has sent down and to the Messenger,” they say, “What we have found our forefathers upon is sufficient for us.” Even though their forefathers knew nothing nor were they guided?» The Holy Qur’an: 5: 104.

What should people do if they wish to accept Islam but are worried about how their family may react?

Those who desire to convert to Islam but have concerns about their immediate environment can choose to embrace Islam privately until a more suitable situation arises, allowing them to openly practice and express their beliefs.

While it is advisable to accept Islam promptly, it is not obligatory to disclose this decision to those around you or publicize it if doing so could pose harm. It is essential to prioritize personal safety and well-being.

Additionally, upon embracing Islam, you become part of a broader brotherhood with fellow Muslims. Seeking assistance from the leader of a mosque or the Islamic center in your country is encouraged, as they are likely to provide support and guidance.

Allah, the Almighty, assures in the Quran: «And whoever fears Allah - and He will provide for him from where he does not expect. Whoever puts his trust in Allah, He is sufficient for him. Indeed, Allah will surely accomplish His purpose, for Allah has set a destiny for everything.» The Holy Qur’an: 65: 2-3.

This highlights the divine promise that those who fear Allah will find solutions to their challenges and provisions from unexpected sources.

Dear reader,

Isn't it more crucial to seek the pleasure of Allah, your Creator, who has generously bestowed upon you His blessings, provided sustenance during your time as a fetus in your mother's womb, and granted you the very air you breathe, than to prioritize the approval of people?

Is the pursuit of success in this world and the Hereafter not worth sacrificing transient pleasures? Undoubtedly! Therefore, do not allow your past to hinder you from choosing the righteous path. Be a steadfast believer and resist the influence of Satan steering you away from the correct course.

Allah, the Almighty, emphasizes: ﴿O people, there has come to you conclusive evidence from your Lord, and We have sent down to you a clear light. * As for those who believe in Allah and hold fast to Him, He will admit them into His mercy and grace, and guide them to Himself through a straight path.﴾ The Holy Qur'an: 4: 174-175.

Are you prepared to make the most significant decision of your life?

If the points mentioned resonate with you and you've acknowledged the truth in your heart, it's time to take the initial step toward embracing Islam. Would you like assistance in making this crucial decision, along with guidance on how to embrace Islam?

Don't let your past sins hinder you from embracing Islam. The Qur'an assures us that Allah forgives all sins when individuals embrace Islam and repent to their Creator. Even after converting, it's natural to err as we are human beings and not infallible angels. However, the key is to seek forgiveness from Allah and repent. By hastening to embrace the truth and reciting the two testimonies of faith, Allah will aid you in overcoming other sins. Additionally, those who turn to Allah and follow the truth will be guided toward greater goodness. Therefore, do not hesitate to embrace Islam.

As Allah, the Almighty, conveys: ﴿Say to those who disbelieve that if they desist, their past will be forgiven, but if they persist, then they have a precedent in those who have passed before them.﴾ The Holy Qur'an: 8: 38.

To become a Muslim, you can follow these simple steps:

1. Utter the Two Testimonies:

Declare the Two Testimonies, understanding their meaning and believing in Allah. The Testimonies are: "I bear witness that there is no god but Allah, and that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah." While it's preferable to say them in Arabic, you can also express them in your mother tongue if you find it challenging.

2. Learn About Your Religion:

Acquire knowledge about Islam, as it will be the source of your happiness in this world and your salvation in the Hereafter.
